PHYSICIANS' BLACKLIST.

Dectors Form an Alliance to Collect

A meeting of physicians was held last night for the purpose of organising the Protective Medical Alliance of this city. Dr. Perry C. Hicking was appointed temporary president and Dr. R. H. Neale, temporary secretary.

The object of the assocition is to obtain from every member the name, occupation and color of all persons who refuse to pay just fees, to supply such information to every member of the Allians and to every member of the Alliance and to prevent members from attending those whose names appear on the official record of the Alliance, and to assess members as provided by the constitution, and which was signed by the gentlemen present.

In regard to accounts due the Alliance, it has been agreed that a formal notification shall be sent to the delinquent patient of the latter's indebtedness, and a certification to pay the amount within ten days from date. If this has no effect, a lotter from the secretary will be sent to the delinquents, informing the debtor that his name will be put on the black-list, with the effect of barring him and his family from medical attendance. The meeting adjourned without perfecting an organization.

Tackled the Wrong Man,

Last evening while passing through the park at the intersection of Third street and Missouri avenue, Charles Keokuk, a Cherokee Indian, was assaulted by a burly negro, who attempted to knock him down with a club. Keokuk is considerable of a man himself, and he grappied with the negro and got the best of him. The colored man threw his club away and run when he found that he had struck the wrong man. Keokuk went lato a neighboring drug stere and had his wounds dressed by Dr. J. B. Cohb. He has been here is me time furnishing needed information in regard to the Cherokee Trib. to tion in regard to the Cherokee Trib: to the Interior Department. Only a few weeks ago, while on a trip down the river, Keokuk lost between $200 and $500, and the supposition is that he had it steich from him.

Female Sneak Thieves,

Nancy Dorsey, a very claver co thief, has been apprehended. She is an asacciate of Sarah Juckson and the two work together, systematically robbing people by whom they are employed. The other day officer Maddox of the Third precinct found Nancy steeping behind the staircase in his own house. She explained that she had just come in to see whether a girl who formerly worked there still remained as she wished to see her. Only a short time afterward the same officer was called upon to arrest the Dorsey woman for the theft of a chain, bracelet and diamond pin from Mrs. Mary Kessler, a near neighbor. The police expect to prove innumerable cases of larceny

COLLAPSED.

THE WASHINGTON TRAM GOES UNDER THE SECOND TIME.

The Mcn Were Sensitive About the Jeering of the Crowd on Monday, and Refused to Play,

The Washington Ball Club has gone under. Two reasons are assigned for this, first the failure of Mr. McCarthy who agreed to take the club, and seeond, the sensitiveness of the dear players. When Mr. McCarthy backed out on Monday, after his emphatic declarations of what he was going to do, the matter was kept quiet and some very active hustling was indulged in by Manager Sullivan. The men were told of the change in affairs and asked to play for a day or so on their own account until money could be raised to continue the team. They apparently acculesced in this, but one or two of the men who are owed the least money and have done the largest amount of kicking, induced the other men not to play any lenger.

They declared they could not stand the jeers of the crowd the previous day and they did not propose to continuo any longer, as they were too sore on the town. It was a mutually reciprocal soreness for the town is a trifle force on the men than they are on the town. The acostityeness of the men operated against them, for there were about 500 deluded mortals at the grounds yesterday to see the game. They were disappointed, for only the Newark team appeared and indulged in Newark team appeared and indulged in

The game, of course, was declared foreited to the Newarks by a score of 9 to 0, and the spectators separated discussing the latest collapse of the team. Barnie was here in the morning, and after looking over the situation, advised Sullivan to confirm the declared. Suillyan to continue. He declared that if necessary the other teams would help out, and as other parties here wanted to take hold, it was decided to have the games with Hartford to day and to morrow postponed until later in the season. Sullivan immediately started to get a new team together. He declares he will not take one of the old men except Gleason, and already has sufficient assurance that he can put an entire new team in the field by to morrow night and go away on the trip. The dear, sensitive creatures who could not stand the jeering of the crowd, will be allowed to get out of their difficulties as best they can.

It was stated yesterday that Manager Trott sgreed to take kalf the gate re-ceipts instead of the guarrantee, but this was denied last night by Mr. Suili-

AMATURE BASEBALL. The Cecils played a very interesting g me of baseball yesterday afternoon with the Potomacs and defeated them by a score of 18 to 3. The battery for the Cecils was J. Sullivan and J. Southey and for the Potomacs McCann and Swenney.

STRIKING CARRIAGEMAKERS.

A Conference to be Held With Mesers,

Joyce To-Day. A large number of the locked-out coachmen assembled last evening at their headquarters, 307 Missouri avenue. They congratulated themselves upon the capture of two of the Joyces new men, who were induced to quit work yesterday.

A committee of the striking men will discuss the affair with the Messrs. Joyce this evening at 5:30 o'clock. After the result of this conference is known the strikers will meet at Shea's Hall and decide upon some plan of future action. Mr. R. E. Joyce went to New York yesterday to secure new men, and Mr. Saunders is on the same

The Federation of Labor Unions at a meeting last night adopted resolutions pledging their ald to the strikers, and hoping that an amicable settlement will be made between Mesars. Joyce and their old employes.
